jabbering trout

Jabbering Trout is a killah live act with memorable original songs.

They began their trajectory in the 90s in Boston as a high-energy, two-person, drum and guitar duo. Thriving in the local acoustic scene, Jabbering Trout won Boston's Acoustic Underground competition, and were off and running, touring clubs and playing festivals nationally.

The band put out two albums which were well received and reviewed in newspapers, magazines and fanzines across the country. Jabbering Trout has been through many incarnations since the original lineup. The common theme is solid, catchy songwriting delivered live with energy.

Today Jabbering Trout play as a trio, with Terrance Reeves' bass guitar and the drumming of Chuck Hargreaves with the guitar-backed vocals of founding member Tom Burris.
